

The Great Stone Viaduct/Bellaire Public Library Winter Lecture Series Presents:

"Isaac Parker: Judge of the Old West" by Marcia Hartman

Marcia Hartman brings local history to the pages of Crossroads Magazine. She will bring us the history of Judge Isaac Parker as collected from Barnesville native Bill Farson. Judge Parker was raised in Barnesville but followed the call of the west to venture to Missouri and was appointed by Ulysses S. Grant to be the judge for the US District Court for the Western District of Arkansas. Reportedly, the Clint Eastwood classic "Hang 'Em High" was based on Judge Parker's work.

Wednesday, February 10th, at 6pm
Streaming via Facebook Live

Marcia Hartman has been the publication writer for Southeast Publications for 3 ½ years. Previously, she spent many years working as a licensed social worker in services for elderly and disabled individuals.